

In order to make sure we maximize your refund and get every tax credit and deduction you are entitled to, make sure you have all the receipts and income records that we will need.

☐ Child care expenses

To assist you in gathering this information, here is a checklist:

Cline

☐ All T4 slips (Employment Income)	☐ Adoption expenses
☐ Employment insurance benefits (T4E)	☐ Children's arts and sports programs
☐ Interest, dividends, mutual funds (T3, T5)	☐ Moving expenses
☐ Tuition/education receipts (T2202A)	☐ Interest paid on student loans
☐ Universal Child Care Benefit (RC62)	☐ Office—In-home expenses
 Old Age Security and CPP benefits (T4A-OAS, T4AP) 	☐ Exams for professional certification
 Other pensions and annuities (T4A) 	Other Documentation
□ Social assistance payments (T5007)	□ Notice of Assessment/Reassessment for prior
□ Worker's compensation benefits (T5007)	year
☐ All other information slips	□ Prior year tax return (T1 general)
	 Canada Revenue Agency correspondence
Receipts	 Sale or deemed sale of stocks, bonds or real estate
☐ RRSP contribution slips	□ Northern residents deductions
 Support for a child, spouse or common-law partner 	☐ Rental income and expense records
□ Professional or union dues	☐ Business, farm or fishing income/expenses
☐ Tool expenses (Tradesperson)	 Automobile/Travel logbook and expenses
☐ Medical expenses	 Disability Tax Credit Certificate
□ Transit pass receipts	 Declaration of Conditions of Employment (T2200)
 Charitable donations 	□ Volunteer Firefighters certification
□ Political contributions	□ Proceeds of dispositoin of principal residence
Receipts (continued)	(NEW)

Rehan Ishaq CPA Professional Corporation